LABOR NEWS.

The United Brewers' Association, with home time ago was the cause of a controversy between brewers' unions in this city and which was refused admission to the Misceilaneous Section, has at last been admitted to that organization. The union is now known as Local Union No. 59 of the National Union. John Mullane and Thomas Riordan will remesent the union.

Beer ifrewers' Union No. 1 of this city has proposed to the National Union that it assess each of its members five cents a week to help the striking miners in their trouble. The local body also proposes that $1,000 be donated now. The fullon has donated $10 itself now and in the event of the central body not adopting the suggestion it will contribute more.
